This Consignment ("Agreement") made as of _____(Date), by and between _____ ("Consignor") and Simple Finds Interiors & Antiques ("Consignee").

Whereas the Consignor wishes to sell certain product(s) on consignment and Consignee wishes to sell the product(s) on behalf of the Consignor. All merchandise must be owned 'free and clear' by the Consignor. Simple Finds Interiors & Antiques will not be held liable for the misrepresentation of items it is selling on behalf of the Consignor.

Sale by Consignment. The Consignor agrees to the pricing structure and matrix schedule established by the Consignee with the sole and express intent to sell the aforementioned items in a timely manner.

Consignor is paid the following month the item sells in a 50/50 split of the proceeds of the sale.

MARKDOWN SCHEDULE:

- After 30 days, 10% off original price
 - After 60 days, 20% off original price
 - After 90 days, 30% off original price
 - After 120 days, 50% or greater off original price for authorized liquidation of item
-  Simple Finds is authorized to offer a maximum discount of 10% off the current contract pricing at anytime throughout the life of the consignment contract to close a sale with buyer in hand. Any amount greater requires consignor approval for a discount. *****

In lieu of collecting those items which did not sell within the original terms of the Agreement, the Consignee will offer to liquidate those items on behalf of the Consignor at mutually agreed upon discount in the attempt to sell the item for an additional 30 days. If still unsold, the Consignee requested the removal of said item within seven (7) business day of the expiration date of the extension unless other arrangements are made. The consignor also has the option of asking the consignee to have the item donated to a licensed 501c(3) non-profit, charity organization and a tax donation slip will be held on file for consignor.

Simple Finds Interiors & Antiques (Consignee) requests that ALL inventory not sold with the time frame outlined above must be collected by the Owner (Consignor) within seven (7) business days or it will be donated to charity.

All items must be 'dust free' and 'mold/odor free' and must function as intended with minimal scratches, dings and no stains**
